

Acoustic music with attitude! Whether you are fighting your inner demons, nursing a broken heart, or celebrating life, Celine’s songwriting will get under your skin. Taking inspiration from her parent’s record collections and blending Country and Americana influences has resulted in a unique singer/songwriter style with more singalong melodies than you can shake a stick at!

After a break from releasing original songs, Celine is now back delivering top-drawer original music as an independent artist.

“Foot-stomping and festival-ready” Three Chords
“One of the Midlands best kept secrets” New Boots
