Celine Ellis - Without Me - out 12th Nov 2021

This is not your typical break up song; This is beautiful, honest, and emotive
- New Boots

“I have opened up my heart for this song. I broke up with my partner for all the right reasons; we weren’t good for each other and I genuinely thought she would be better off without me. Time has taught me that we are both better off apart, and I’m sure she will agree with that now, but sometimes that’s really hard to see when you’re in the moment.”

Your heart thinks quicker than your mind
Maybe it needs a little more time
So forgiveness can remember my name
And you will be yourself once again, Without Me

Inspired to write this song when she saw a friend post a quote on facebook, Celine knew the moment she read it that it would become a song. “Your heart thinks quicker than your mind - when I read it I was immediately taken back to that breakup. I allowed myself to revisit how I felt and what I wanted to say in the moment but couldn’t.” And a song was born...

Celine echos the melancholy of the lyrics with a stripped back arrangement. Acoustic guitars are intertwined with piano, subtle strings and just a pinch of organ. It demonstrates a gentle vulnerability and delivers a pensive look into a break up. Working again with Matt and Tom Bishop at Inspire Studio and bringing in long-time friend Gordon Milton on keys, this song will grab you from the very start.

The tears on your face
Are no longer mine to dry

Without Me is released on November 12th across all streaming and digital platforms
